SIC UTERE TUO UT NON LÆDAS
So to use your own as not to injure another

“First: No man is to deprive another of his property, or disturb him in enjoying it.

“Secondly, every person is bound to take due care of his own property, so as the neglect thereof may not injure his neighbor.

“Thirdly, all persons must so use their right, that they do not... damage their neighbor’s property.”

—Giles Jacob, 1729 (A New Law Dictionary)

Second Annual Good Neighbor Forum

Saturday, March 15, 2008 • 9:00 a.m.—4:00 p.m.

Little America Hotel • Cheyenne, Wyoming

“We must take a side.”

—Elie Wiesel

Welcome! Recognizing that national security is tied to American resource production, Good Neighbor Forum has brought together some of the most knowledgeable individuals in the United States, who will explain how factual science working with good policy are the only ways to protect your food supply and safety.

You will have a five minute break between each speaker. Please note: in the spirit of keeping the final Q&A fair for all attendees, we ask that you please write down your question. They'll be picked up throughout the day, reviewed and read to the speaker panel.

Good Neighbor Sponsors

Please keep these businesses and individuals in mind. Their generous contributions help support Good Neighbor Forums.

Volunteers

Good Neighbor is 100% hard-working volunteers. No monies go towards staff. Your dollar is prudently spent on unavoidable hard costs like stamps, our webmaster, and printing.

These are some of the folks behind the scenes who spread the good word, maintain the website, add editorial, handle registrations, bookkeeping and sponsorships, place ads, and a myriad of other kind deeds.

Good Neighbor would like to thank them for their cheerful donations of time, talent and money, and mostly for embracing the essence and ethics of being a Good Neighbor.

Special thanks to Jim Rohn for highlighting Good Neighbor on his 4:30 p.m. Sunday show on Pirate 104.7 FM.
